

Center Open for Volunteers on Tuesday, September 4.
We'll open our doors to our guests on Wednesday, September 5.

Thank you to everyone who helped us get through the last several months. The change in hours was a huge undertaking; but, thanks to the many volunteers who supported us, we made it work! And a huge thank you to my Board of Directors: Jim Patton, Kathleen Gibson, Marge Kempf, and Steve & Mary Levesque. They were all supportive of me through the challenging times. We all spent many long hours working on the schedule change while also working towards a better solution. I'm thrilled that The Center will be open from 9 a.m. – 11 a.m. That means we will not take in any additional guests after 11 a.m., but we'll continue to help the guests that are in house, aiming to be finished by noon.
